Alex. H. WashburnCalifornia Votes
2 to 1 for the Death Penalty

I have never understood the logic of those who oppose the death penalty for a convicted murderer.

And apparently many feel as I do. On Nov. 7 the voters of California, in defiance of a U.S. Supreme Court ruling against the death penalty, upheld it by two to one.

What disturbs me in the Supreme Court decision is that it seems to be disruptive of justice, the public peace, and good government. In civilized nations the right to seek personal vengeance against the slayer of one of your clan is forbidden, because government has taken on the task of seeing justice is done. This is the main difference between the barbarous and the civilized land.

But if one close to you is slain under inexcusable circumstances and the killer is duly convicted yet escapes the death penalty, what possible effect can such a contradiction have but to weaken the bereaved family of its confidence in justice and in government?

In view of the constitutional contract between citizen and state I do not see how either a legislature or the Congress, or the Supreme Court, has the moral right to abridge the natural code of vengeance for murder.

"An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth," is the oldest of proverbs. Any government which tries to spell it differently is courting loss of public confidence and that ultimate disaster which has befallen every government in the history of the world.

The election happened to be held in California.

But the result, I believe, would have been the same in any other state.

Death comes to every man. But human dignity demands that if the manner of his going is an outrage then vengeance will be executed by the state.

For government to act otherwise is an invitation to citizens to return to the personal law of the jungle—in which event the twilight of dissolution would settle upon our civilization.

More funds
questioned

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The expenditure in Arkansas of $2,448,786 in Title I education funds has been questioned by auditors, an official said Tuesday.

This was in addition to the $615,548 in allegedly misapplied funds the U. S. Office of Education requested Monday that the state repay, the official said.

Lou Zekiel, deputy director of the News Division of the Office of Education, said that an additional $2 million in expenditures still was being investigated by auditors.

John Chafee, director of the News Division, said there was no possibility the state would be billed for more than the $615,548, and he said it was possible the figure might be lowered.

A. W. Ford, director of the state Education Department, said Monday that the state "isn't going to pay anything and I don't think the districts will either."

Federal officials encouraged Ford and officials of seven other states to meet with them in Washington or to file written replies within 30 days.

"It's possible that they may be able to justify some of these expenditures which we could not justify," Chafee said. "In that case, the refund we're requesting will be reduced."

If the state fails to respond within 30 days, the audit findings will become final, and if the state refused to return the funds, money may be withheld from future Title I grants.

resume

PARIS (AP) — Henry A. Kissinger resumed his Vietnam peace talks with Hanoi's top negotiators today after an overnight trip to Brussels and an hour-long talk with President Suharto of Indonesia.

President Nixon's security adviser and the North Vietnamese Politburo member, Le Duc Tho went into the third meeting of their secret peace talks.

Indonesia is one of four countries that have been asked to supervise the cease-fire Kissinger and Tho are trying to work out. Presumably the U.S. presidential adviser went to Brussels to discuss this with Suharto, who is on a tour of European capitals.

Kissinger flew to Brussels Tuesday night after his second meeting with Tho. He returned to Paris in the middle of the morning.

Kissinger and Tho met for more than four hours Tuesday at a suburban villa owned by the French Communist party.

As usual there was no concrete information on their discussions. But during one 15-minute break they could be seen walking together in the garden, conversing animatedly and occasionally laughing loudly. This jovial atmosphere aroused speculation that the talks were going well.

Kissinger also took time out Tuesday to lunch with the beautiful blonde wife of banker Freddy Cushing, who is with Lehman Bros. in Paris. Friends said the Cushings have invited Kissinger to have Thanksgiving dinner with them, an indication that his talks with Tho may continue into the weekend.

North Vietnam meanwhile sounded its daily blast with a "special communique" demanding that the United States halt its bombing and "sign with equal speed the peace agreement." Kissinger and Tho worked out in Paris in October.

South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu's senior adviser on national security, Nguyen Phu Duc, left Saigon Tuesday night for Paris, presumably to put new pressure on Kissinger to hold out for a peace agreement conforming to Thieu's demands.

Israelis
seal off
'Heights'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Israeli Army sealed off the Golan Heights again today and kept its troops there on full alert in the wake of their big battle with Syrian forces Tuesday.

The Israeli command said the plateau, which Israel seized from Syria in the 1967 war, was "quiet but tense."

An Israeli commander admitted shelling six civilian villages to make examples of them during the battle with Syrian forces Tuesday. He said he was acting on orders from higher up.

The shelling was intended "to give the Syrians a signal that they should stop shelling our civilian settlements," a senior commander told newsmen visiting the battle zone on the Golan Heights.

"We made about 30 to 30 hits inside the villages. Who lives in them? Poor people."

Israel hit the villages after Syria fired on two Israeli civilian outposts, killing one civilian and injuring three, the officer said. One Israeli soldier also was wounded. The Syrians later shelled a third Israeli settlement.

The eight-hour air, tank and artillery battle along the Golan plateau Tuesday ended at dusk. It was the second this month and one of the heaviest exchanges along the frontier since the 1967 war.

Chicago 7 cases are overturned

CHICAGO (AP) — Declaring that the trial judge took an "often antagonistic attitude toward the defense," a federal appeals court has overturned the conviction of five antiwar activists in the case of the Chicago 7.

The ruling Tuesday by the U.S. 7th Circuit Court of Appeals climaxed a controversial case which stems from street rioting during the week of the Democratic National Convention here in 1968.

The five antiwar activists who were convicted two years ago of inciting the rioting were David T. Dellinger, 56; Richard C. "Rennie" Davis, 32; Abbot "Abbie" Hoffman, 33; Jerry C. Rubin, 35; and Thomas E. Hayden, 32.

They were sentenced to five years in prison and fined $5,000 each. But the appeals court ruled that their constitutional rights may have been violated in the bitter four-month trial before U.S. District Court Judge Julius J. Hoffman.

The appeals court ruled that the government could retry the defendants. But it added: "There is evidence in the record, which, if believed, and inferences favorable to the defendants drawn, would lead a jury to acquit."

Two other defendants in the case, Lee Weiner, 33, and John R. Froines, 32, were acquitted by the jury. All of the seven were acquitted of conspiring to incite the rioting.

An eighth defendant, Black Panther leader Bobby Seale, was severed from the case because of outbursts in the courtroom and the government declined to bring him to trial again.

The defense contended from the start that no conspiracy was involved. Abbie Hoffman often remarked, "How could we conspire to do anything? We couldn't even agree on lunch."

The trial began Sept. 24, 1969.

Before it ended there were insults, the gagging and binding in court of Seale, the stoic testimony of Mayor Richard J. Daley, the sarcastic comments of the judge, the theatrics of poet Allan Ginsberg, the insults by defense attorney William Kunstler and the obscenities and comedies staged by the defendants.

By Feb. 18, 1970, the jury of 10 women and two men — weary of the long trial during which they had been sequestered in a Chicago hotel — convicted the five men of actually inciting rioting.

Judge Hoffman immediately passed sentence. A few days before, after the jury had been sent to deliberate, he had imposed contempt sentences on all the defendants and their lawyers.

Those citations were set aside earlier this year by the federal appeals court and the government says it plans to bring the nine men to trial on.

Turkey rated one of top buys

WASHINGTON (AP) — That fine old bird, the turkey, is rated as one of the best buys in the supermarket, but some of the trimmings are going to add to family food bills this Thanksgiving.

A 21-pound turkey in the Washington, D.C., area is selling this week for an average of 39 cents per pound, which is unchanged from the past three Thankgivings, the Agriculture Department reports.

At $7.80 for a typical bird, the turkey is usually the single most expensive item on the dinner table, depending on how fancy the other fare is.

The department limited its retail price survey to the Washington area and said there was no national estimate. However, retail food prices generally are running about 4 per cent higher than last year.

Some items cost more this Thanksgiving. Ready-made stuffing is 35 cents per pound, compared with 33 cents a year ago.

Fresh cranberries, averaging 29 cents a pound, are unchanged. Sweet potatoes are up one penny from 14 cents per pound a year ago.

Heaviest B52
attack of war
reported in VN

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command today announced the heaviest B52 attack of the war on North Vietnam and the loss of two smaller jets, including another one of its swing-wing F111s. Three of the crewmen are missing and one was rescued, the command said.

The F111 was the fourth of the $15 million planes lost since the controversial all-weather attack bomber returned to combat on Sept. 26. The command said it disappeared before dawn Tuesday while on a solo mission just above the demilitarized zone, and its two crewmen are missing.

The U.S. Command also reported that a Marine F4 fighter-bomber was shot down in southern Laos Monday. It said one crewman was rescued and the other was missing.

The loss of a third American plane was reported by the U.S. Embassy in Thailand, where most of the U.S. Air Force planes flying against North Vietnam are based. The Embassy said a C47 crashed late Tuesday as it was landing at the NAKORN Phanom base in northeast Thailand, killing two of the crew and injuring eight others.

Fifteen B52 missions were reported ending at noon Wednesday, topping a previous high of 13 such missions during one 24-hour period.

While the U.S. Command would not disclose how many B52s made up each mission, other U.S. military sources said there were about 45 in all and they dropped more than 1,300 tons of explosives on the southern panhandle of North Vietnam.

U.S. military sources said the B52 attacks were unusually heavy to make up for the curtailment in fighter-bomber strikes due to the monsoon weather. The U.S. Command reported only 60 such strikes Tuesday, the fifth successive day the total has been 60 or less.

The B52s are unaffected by the weather since they can fly as high as 35,000 feet and drop their bombs by radar. The U.S. Command said their targets were supply caches awaiting shipment into northern Laos and to North Vietnamese forces in South Vietnam just below the demilitarized zone.

Meanwhile, heavy North Vietnamese resistance and torrential rains stalled South Vietnamese marines trying to push northward from Quang Tri City toward the DMZ to expand their territorial control prior to a cease-fire.

New charges are made by Jim Garrison

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison says the CIA plotted to do away with President John F. Kennedy because he disapproved of the Vietnam military escalation.

According to Garrison, "President Kennedy's murder was instigated by the powerful military chieftains of the Pentagon ... in concert with dominant elements of the Central Intelligence Agency."

Kennedy's undoing, he said, was a decision in the summer of 1963 to order American forces out of Southeast Asia—an order which immediately started the CIA-Pentagon plot in motion.

"Immediately after the eulogy for President Kennedy was conducted at the Rotunda of the nation's Capitol," said Garrison in a statement Tuesday, "(President) Johnson met with the U.S. ambassador to Vietnam and instructed him to return to Vietnam and inform the Saigon government that we were now going to give South Vietnam strong support."

"The rest," added Garrison's statement, "is history—the 55,000 American dead and the 300,000 Americans wounded."

Garrison also claimed that a "scapegoat" named Lee Harvey Oswald was carefully trained and then planted in the Texas School Book Depository, drawing the eyes of the world from the professional assassins.

The nine-page statement was delivered to newsmen shortly after Clay Shaw held a news conference to discuss Monday's Supreme Court decision.

"It was a load off my back," he said.

However, Shaw criticized the cumbersome judiciary, saying it took a jury 55 minutes to free him, but it took the judiciary five years and eight months to confirm the decision.

Shaw said the most horrifying aspect was the huge sums of money donated by private individuals to finance Garrison's investigation of the alleged presidential assassination plot.

"The state has an enormous advantage over individuals," said Shaw, "and for private citizens to give it more power is horrifying."

Shaw was the New Orleans businessman who Garrison accused of plotting the assassination of President Kennedy. He was acquitted in 1969, and subsequently was charged with lying on the stand when he testified he did not know Lee Harvey Oswald.

2-year budget approval is asked by state department

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Legislative Council was asked Tuesday by the state Department of Correction to approve a budget of $3,611,721 in state general revenues for the first year of the next biennium and $4,022,969 in the second year.

The department also asked for special revenue appropriations of $1,508,971 and $1,600,929 for the prison farming operations and $1,541,997 and $2,087,384 for a new prison industry program. These programs are intended to be self-supporting, so they wouldn't receive general revenue funds.

The department also asked for authority to spend $797,468 in federal funds in the 1973-74 fiscal year and $880,871 in the 1974-75 fiscal year.

This year, the department has a budget of $2,719,920 in general revenue, $1,517,596 in special revenue and $739,010 in federal funds.

Gov. Dale Bumpers had recommended $3,780,833 in the first year for the department and $4,084,117 in the second.

Correction Commissioner Terrell Don Hutto said most of the proposed increase in the budget resulted from plans to add employees and raise salaries.

The department proposes hiring 68 new employees, including 42 guards. Hutto said this would allow elimination of the armed trusty system. He said there still would be some trusty inmates, but they would not carry guns or exercise authority over inmates.

Hutto said the prison farming operation was expected not only to be self-supporting in the next biennium, but also to show a $200,000 profit, which would go into the inmate care and custody fund.

The department plans to establish a prison industry program to train inmates for jobs, Hutto said. He said the budget figures for the program were rough estimates. He said he did not know what types of industry would be established, but said he believed it would be better to have several small industries instead of one big one.

Hutto said he wanted to raise the starting salary of guards from $403 a month to $508. He said the department had a 6 per cent turnover a month in guards.

Hutto asked that the salary for a full-time prison physician be raised from $27,500 to $30,000 because he had been unable to hire a full-time physician at the lower salary.

Col. William C. Miller, director of the State Police, submitted a budget of $7,522,522 for 1973-74 and $7,753,145 for 1974-75. The governor's recommendations were $6,711,221 and $7,007,667. This year's appropriation is $6,522,193.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 17, 1972

Dear Mr. Washburn:

As I look back on the results of November 7, I realize that such an overwhelming victory would not have been possible without the strong support we had from editorial endorsements across the nation.

I cannot find words adequate to express my appreciation. I can assure you, however, that I shall do everything I can over the next four years to make a record all Americans, regardless of party, can be proud of as we celebrate our 200th Birthday.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Richard Nixon

BILL O'NEAL

O'Neal is guest speaker

During the weekly luncheon hour Monday at the Town and Country Restaurant Hope Lions heard about a special state office that deals with highway safety that is not as well known to the public as most others relating to the use of the highways.

Program chairman Milton Mosier introduced the speaker, Bill O'Neal of Texarkana, who is the hearing officer for drivers licenses. The office is known as Driver Control Unit.

Mr. O'Neal originally lived in upstate New York near the Canadian border but married an Arkansas girl and received his higher education at the University of Arkansas following which he entered the advertising field.

Soon after the driver control field was established he became interested in the work and became attached to the office. At that time there was one control unit for all seventy-five counties in the state. Now there are thirteen such offices in the state and Mr. O'Neal's office serves thirteen counties.

The speaker again reminded the group of the 608 highway deaths in 1971 and 683 deaths so far in 1972 on Arkansas highways and made a special plea for careful driving during the holiday season. Nationwide there were over 56,000 traffic deaths.

Linda Parks, Blevins, and Sue Bradshaw, DeQueen, students at Red River Vocational Technical School were visitors to the club. John King of Walnut Ridge was the guest of Lion Frank King.

Lineup feeds rumor mill

By GAYLORD SHAW
Associated Press Writer
THURMONT, Md. (AP) —
Advisers from the first Nixon administration and possible candidates for top jobs in the second continued to line up outside the President's door today, even as a long-time Nixon associate was reported in line to become secretary of Defense.

Kenneth Rush, the present deputy secretary of Defense, was among seven officials who conferred with the President Tuesday at Camp David, Md., where a fresh schedule of meetings was set for today.

Meanwhile, sandwiched in between the week's conferences on reorganizing the administration, will be a strictly-family White House Thanksgiving dinner undisturbed by presidential business.

Nixon scheduled meetings today with Labor Secretary James C. Hodgson, NATO Ambassador David Kennedy and Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz. Goldwater is the first member of Congress to be shuttled to the mountaintop retreat where Nixon has spent most of the time since his landslide re-election.

Sources have sought to quell reports that New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, one of the seven meeting with Nixon Tuesday, would be in the second Nixon Cabinet.

They said Rockefeller had shown no interest in leaving Albany for Washington, and that he would not be on the administration's Cabinet roster when Nixon begins his second term Jan. 20.

But there were no White House disclaimers that Rush is a top candidate for the Pentagon's premier post. Melvin Laird has announced plans to step aside after four years as secretary of Defense.

Rush, a former ambassador whose acquaintance with Nixon goes back to their years at Duke University Law School, came to Camp David to confer with the President "on matters relating to a second term," press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said.

Others meeting with Nixon on Tuesday were Interior Secretary Rogers C.B. Morton; Chairman Herbert Stein of the President's Council of Economic Advisers; communications director Herbert Klein; Atomic Energy Commission chairman James Schlesinger; and Securities and Exchange Commission chairman William Casey. Comedian Bob Hope also paid a 15-minute courtesy call.

East-West winners were: first Mrs. R.L. Broach and Mrs. Syd McMath; second, Olive Jackson and Mrs. R.T. Wilson; third, Mike Kelly and Mrs. Rudy Fick.

Where the rest of the year, do they keep all the useless gadgetry you can see in the stores during the yule season?

YOUR BIRTHDAY TODAY

Important changes are possible for you this year. Prudent management of your finances will give the bank-book opportunity to fatten itself comfortably.

ARIES (Mar 21-Apr 19): You should keep opinions about the family to yourself. You gain nothing by airing domestic problems.

TAURUS (Apr 20-May 20): The urge is great to "get away from it all." But be certain this is the right time to plan a trip.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21): Think twice about making a major purchase for the home. It could be a strain on the budget.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Legal matters are a critical area for you today. Make decisions only with expert advice.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22): You tend to be a little cranky today. Do what you have to do, but keep your welfare in mind.

VIRGO (Aug 23-Sept 22): An outsider's opinion is important businesswise with a friend today. Detached analysis can avoid future disappointment.

LIBRA (Sept 23-Oct 23): Be most careful where reputation is concerned today. A broken promise could cause damage hard to repair.

SCORPIO (Oct 24-Nov 22): Your plans could be affected by overlooking some very important factors. Be a realist in evaluation; avoid over-optimism.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov 23-Dec 21): Financial assistance should be given only after you've weighed all the facts. Blind generosity will prove expensive.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22-Jan 19): Your mate or partner is likely to have strong opinions opposed to your own. Hold off final decisions today.

AQUARIUS (Jan 20-Feb 19): Be extra careful in matters affecting work or career today. Your judgment is not the best in these areas.

PISCES (Feb 20-Mar 20): Someone close to you may disappoint you today. Don't overdramatize the issue — it will pass.

Kindergarten studies Thanksgiving customs

The children of the Methodist Kindergarten made a gala occasion of each day of the two weeks prior to the Thanksgiving holidays as they planned for their celebration of the first American observance of Thanksgiving. The following kindergarten mothers sent treats of homemade cupcakes: Mrs. Don Abbott, on Nov. 6 to mark the sixth birthday of daughter, Michelle; Mrs. Wayne Bohanan on Nov. 10, to honor son, John on his sixth birthday; and Mrs. Sally Riggs on Nov. 17 for the sixth birthday of daughter, Kelley.

The children heard and discussed the story of the first American Thanksgiving, and built a child-size log cabin in preparation for dramatizing the events that took place at Plymouth.

On Friday the group went into the sanctuary of the church to enjoy the stained glass windows and have a brief worship service. They sang a hymn and the Thanksgiving prayer which was composed by the children was read by a teacher.

The "feast" was enjoyed with most of the guests wearing Indian headresses which the children had made. In the play room, a walk-in wigwam and the children's playground rocking boat added to the realism of their dramatization.

HELEN HELP US!

—by Helen Bottel

Made-to-Order Baby?

DEAR HELEN:

I'm pregnant, unmarried and am being "taken care of." Boy, HOW I'm being taken care of! Though he didn't actually say so, I thought there'd be a divorce and Jim would marry me.

But right after he heard about the baby, he went back to his wife. (They'd never really split up.) He said, at first, that he'd pay for an abortion, but now he comes up with this "great" idea. He wants me to have the baby and they'll adopt it because his wife can't have children. She knows about me and "understands," he says.

They'll pay all expenses and get me started again afterwards, if I promise never to make any claims to the baby. I said I'd rather have an abortion because I don't want to go through giving birth to a kid I don't want, but now Jim says he won't pay for anything but a live baby.

I never hated anyone so much in my life. Why should I go through all those bad months to please him? I got pregnant so I'd get a husband, and I find out all he wants is a baby. Maybe he even planned it this way, though of course he swears he didn't.

What would you do, Helen? — HURT AND HATING

DEAR HURT:

I'd ask myself, "Who's more at fault here?" You schemed to steal a husband away from someone else, though Jim never promised marriage. Now, mainly out of spite, you'd eliminate a very much wanted baby.

Before you seek an abortion, think how you'll feel about this later on when the hate lessons. And then talk to Jim's wife. I can't promise that your attitude will change — or even that this adoption is best for all concerned — but don't make a decision you'll regret, just to get even. Doesn't your baby deserve a hearing too? —H.

DEAR HELEN:

I'm the second wife of a wonderful man whose first wife insists on being friendly. She is constantly at my mother-in-law's, and stays, even when my husband and I are there. When she brings the children over she stays to chat, and her frank discussions of her former marriage chill me. I'm not jealous, but I'd rather not hear all those personal things my husband did with another woman. He just laughs and goes along with it.

Maybe this is "modern" but how can I let them know I'm bothered, without seeming possessive? —PRESENT WIFE

DEAR WIFE:

How about leveling with all concerned? Tell them you aren't THAT modern and you prefer to cool it. Your husband may feel very much relieved. —H.

DEAR HELEN:

Here's another for your "discrimination against women" list:

We had a baby. I did most of the work in the delivery room, believe me! But when the birth announcements came out in the paper it said, "SMITH, James, a boy, (and our address)." Sure, it meant "Mr. and Mrs." and somewhere way up above there was a little line saying "Born to Mr. and Mrs. . . ." but who reads anything but the name?

Why can't birth announcements say "SMITH, James and Mary . . ." It wouldn't take THAT much more room! —ME, MARY; HE, JAMES

DEAR MARY:

They will, they will. Just give newspaper editors time to catch up with all these lib changes. They're still working on "Ms." and "Mary Smith" (or just plain "Smith" in a second reference) rather than "Mrs. James Smith" in news stories. It takes considerable adjustment, believe me! —H.

This column is dedicated to family living so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help YOU. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Write to Helen Bottel care of this newspaper.

You can take advantage of knowledge gleaned from past experience to search for life's deeper meaning. Emotional attachments will undergo constructive changes relating to you.

ARIES (Mar 21-Apr 19): An area where you once enjoyed support could experience opposition. Treat associates with kid gloves today.

TAURUS (Apr 20-May 20): Communications are a problem today. It's not all your fault—co-workers will behave erratically.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21): The unusual conduct of someone you're involved with socially will disappoint you today. It might cost you money.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Disruptive forces may upset home routine today. Things will not run as smoothly as you like.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22): Today you will fare better if you work alone. Unfortunately, your day may have some unexpected, unwelcome interruptions.

VIRGO (Aug 23-Sept 22): Something you may be beyond your means. Remember, it's not a good day for impulsive spending.

LIBRA (Sept 23-Oct 23): You are extrasensitive today. You'll be particularly vulnerable where your image is concerned.

SCORPIO (Oct 24-Nov 22): Your charitable nature encounters unexpected demands today. Frustration will come in deciding what to do.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov 23-Dec 21): Acquaintances will complicate material affairs in some extraordinary manner. Don't bring outsiders into the act.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22-Jan 19): Retain control of your decisions. If you permit it, others will become involved; this will not benefit you.

AQUARIUS (Jan 20-Feb 19): Unexpected hazards in working conditions today. Be careful if you use tools—whether they're in the kitchen or shop.

PISCES (Feb 20-Mar 20): A strong hand is needed with youngsters today. They are likely to be unpredictable and frustrating.

Classics on Tap—

Hoopie Pegs Oklahoma, Texas, Yale Michigan in annual grudge battle

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE
Turkey Taster Deluxe

Egad, friends, the cup indeed runneth over this week for even the most rabid football fiend. On Turkey Day you'll be treated to the 52nd renewal of the Oklahoma-Nebraska rivalry with the Big Eight title riding on the outcome. And that evening—kaff-kaff—Texas and Texas A&M will have at it for the 79th time on the gridiron.

Then on Saturday, in the greatest rivalry of them all, Harvard and Yale will square off for the 89th renewal of The Game! Meanwhile, in Columbus, Ohio State and Michigan will meet for the 69th time, with the Big Ten title at stake.

Other traditional classics, in which the record book counts for naught, match Arizona State vs. Arizona (46th renewal); Mississippi vs. Mississippi State (69th engagement); Missouri vs. Kansas (81st meeting); Penn State vs. Pittsburgh (72nd game); Cornell vs. Princeton (55th contest); Purdue vs. Indiana (75th game); Kentucky vs. Tennessee (68th meeting); and Wisconsin vs. Minnesota (82nd game).

Egad, what great history has been made in these fabled meetings over the years, and surely some equally great feats of derring-do will be grist for the historians' mills after this year's contests—um-kumph!

Forecasting these contests in which the emotions are at fever pitch is a perilous business. However, the Hoople

The Old Boy Himself

System has carefully assessed all factors and is confident of its predictions—har-rumph!

Here's how we call 'em: Oklahoma will avenge last year's narrow defeat by shading Nebraska 31-28, with versatile Gregg Pruitt of Oklahoma and the Cornhuskers' great runner Johnny Rodgers putting on a spectacular show. In the Texas-A&M encounter we foresee a bruising battle with the Longhorns finishing on the long end of a 17-10 score.

In The Game I look for my beloved Yale-Boola-Boola—to turn back the Crimson lads, 25-22! And in the Big Ten classic, Michigan—kaff-kaff—will earn a ticket to the Rose Bowl by whipping the Buckeyes, 22-16!

In the other thrillers mentioned above, we see victories for Arizona State, Mississippi, Missouri, Penn State, Cornell, Purdue, Kentucky and Wisconsin. Remember, you read it first in the Hoople Forecast. And, lest we forget, dear readers, after Saturday there are only 29 days left till Christmas.

Now go on with the forecast.

Championship and pride at stake

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — What a difference a year makes!

Just one Thanksgiving ago, the Nebraska-Oklahoma game at Norman, Okla., was being touted as the Game of the Century, featuring as it did the 1-2 teams in the country.

This time, just the Big Eight championship—and a lot of personal pride—is at stake at Lincoln, Neb., since 8-1 Oklahoma is only ranked fourth and defending two-time national champion Nebraska, 8-1-1, is no better than fifth.

Nevertheless, Oklahoma's Chuck Fairbanks says it "doesn't look a lot different than last year. Nebraska's style of play, though, is a little bit different. Their offense is more wide open. Last year, there were times when they'd just keep running straight at you and it was difficult to get the ball away from them. Now, they're more of a big play type of team and they're utilizing Johnny Rodgers in many different ways."

"Defensively, the thing that's so impressive about them is their great team speed. At times, you'll see an opening, but if you don't hit it right away, suddenly it's not there any more."

Spurrier, a cool competitor

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Steve Spurrier, who played for years in the shadows of the San Francisco 49ers' No. 1 quarterback John Brodie, is a cool competitor "always looking for the edge that will beat you," says his coach.

San Francisco commentator Dick Nolan made his comments Tuesday as Spurrier was named Associated Press Offensive Player of the Week in the National Football League.

Spurrier, a six-year veteran from Florida who won the Heisman Trophy in 1967, threw five touchdown passes Sunday in San Francisco's 34-31 victory over the Chicago Bears.

As for Oklahoma, the Sooners "have been kinda stopping ourselves," Fairbanks says. "We move the ball up and down the field, but we're not putting it in the end zone like we're capable of doing. But over-all we're so much more balanced than a year ago. Our defense is vastly improved."

Oklahoma ranks second nationally in total offense, first in rushing, fifth in scoring, eighth in total defense, fifth in rushing defense and second in points against.

Nebraska is third in total offense, fourth in passing, second in scoring, tops in total defense, eighth in rushing defense and third in scoring defense.

What do you know ... it just might be another Game of the Century. But it's also Coach Bob Devaney's last home game and it says here ... just like it did last year ... Nebraska.

Michigan at Ohio State—Another one of those all-out wars for the Big Ten crown and the honor (?) of facing top-ranked Southern Cal in the Rose Bowl. Defense usually tells the story in this match-up and no one's scored more than nine points on Michigan all year; four opponents didn't score at all. The banged-up Buckeyes, on the other hand, have yielded 20 points to Wisconsin, 19 to Minnesota and Michigan State and 14 to Northwestern in their last four outings. Despite the home field advantage ... Michigan.

Texas A&M at Texas—A&M's Emory Ballard devised much of the Wishbone offense while coaching under Darrell Royal for five years at ... Texas.

Louisiana State at Florida—It took LSU three periods last Saturday night against lowly Mississippi State to recover from the emotion-packed loss a week earlier to Alabama. Now, with a bowl bid assured, the Tigers might be ripe for an upset against the improving Gators. Resisting the temptation ... LSU.

Cowboys picked over 49ers

By HUBERT MIZELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Steve Spurrier, in pro football mothballs since winning the 1966 Heisman Trophy at Florida, has suddenly become an overnight success.

Given an opening when old pro John Brodie was injured, the San Francisco quarterback has the 49ers in a first-place tie with Los Angeles in the National Football Conference West.

His biggest test comes Thursday.

Spurrier and the 49ers meet world champion Dallas at Texas Stadium with the Cowboys, 8-2, a game behind high-flying Washington in their division.

The prediction here is that Steve won't quite make it.

Dallas should win it by something like 28-20 and say "your move next" to the Redskins, who face National Conference Central leader Green Bay Sunday at Washington.

In another Thanksgiving Day offering, the Detroit Lions are my 34-24 choices to whip the injury-plagued New York Jets.

Detroit, 6-4, is under pressure since it trails the Packers, 7-3, by a notch in the NFC Central with Minnesota, also 6-4, closing hard with four straight victories. HOPE STAR STAFF

As for the Jets, their 6-4 record has eliminated them against 10-0 Miami in the American Conference East, but New York clings to the hope that it can be the AFC wildcard playoff team.

A 10-3 record last week hiked our prediction total to 72 percent with 54 right and 21 wrong. The best guess last week was that Baltimore would upset Cincinnati, the worst that Kansas City would beat San Diego.

Sunday's schedule will have

Green Bay at Washington, Los Angeles at New Orleans, Philadelphia at the New York Giants, Cincinnati at Chicago, Denver at Atlanta, Minnesota at Pittsburgh, Buffalo at Cleveland, Houston at San Diego, Kansas City at Oakland and New England at Baltimore.

Next Monday night's TV matchup presents unbeaten Miami against the 2-7 St. Louis Cardinals.

Aggies will use freshman in starting line

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Texas A&M Coach Emory Ballard plans to start eight freshmen against Texas Thanksgiving Night in their nationally televised Southwest Conference football game.

"We'll be starting eight freshmen against them and there's a wealth of difference between freshmen and a bunch of three year starters," Ballard said Tuesday.

He said "There is no question that Texas is one of the best teams in the nation. They have a great offensive line with size, ability and experience. They have outstanding running backs and a fine running quarterback. This is a traditional game and there is a lot of emotion at both schools. We'll have to be nine-feet off the ground, not have anything bad happen and have a whole lot of good things happen."

Texas Coach Darrell Royal said of the Aggies "I still think they've got their best game in them. They've been coming along ... it's unbelievable the close scores they've been losing by. They've won the statistical battle and still lost a lot of their games. You shouldn't lose when you win the statistics."

The Aggies are 3-7 for the year while the Longhorns are 8-1.

Only 2,700 tickets remain in the capacity 81,000 Memorial Stadium for the 79th meeting in the series in which Texas holds a 55-18-5 edge.

The Longhorns hold a 35-4-1 edge over the Aggies in Austin. Ballard was an assistant on Royal's staff before he became the new Aggies coach this year. He helped Royal develop the Wishbone-T into college football's most devastating offense. "I have nothing but respect for Texas, the school, the coaching staff and the players," Ballard said. "I just wish we were going into the game with a better record."

Freshmen ends Glenn Bujnoch and Blake Schwarz will start for the first time as defensive ends for the Aggies as Ballard suits up 19 frosh.

Bobcats split pair

By RICKY FAWCETT
Star Sports Writer

The Hope Senior teams split a pair of rough and tumble games last night in Gurdon. The Ladycats ran their winning streak to three as they won 34-32. The Bobcats were not as fortunate as they dropped a 54-39 decision.

Like the two previous games, the Ladycats jumped to a quick first quarter lead. The score read Hope 10, Gurdon 0 at the quarter's end.

The Ladycats stretched their lead to twelve at halftime, 30-8. That twelve point lead remained until the end of the game with 34-22 the final score.

Janet McCain and Karleen Coleman topped the Ladycat forwards with 11 points each, while Gigi Gladney scored 8. The Ladycat guards also played an important part in the victory by containing the Gurdon forwards.

Carol Charles scored 13 points for the Gurdon girls.

The Bobcats then took the floor for their season premiere. Mike Harris pumped in six points to help Hope to a 11-6 first quarter lead.

The Go-Devs then went to work on that Bobcat lead. However, the Bobcats prevailed 19-17 at the halfway mark.

Hope was unable to score consistently the second half because of a tough Gurdon zone defense. Eddie Tarply scored 12 points in the second half to lead an inspired Go-Devil team to a 54-39 victory.

Bud Martin led the Bobcats with 13 points while Tarply headed all scorers with 16. The Bobcats and Ladycats will play host to the Nashville Scrappers and Scrappettes Friday night at Jones Field House.

Celtics win easy victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
"Let's face it," said Dave DeBusschere, "the Portland Trail Blazers are not the Boston Celtics. Portland tries to run like Boston, but the Celtics have stronger horses."

The New York Knicks' forward sized up the potential of both teams after an easy 108-80 National Basketball score Tuesday night.

While the Knicks were running over Portland, the Celtics' "horses" were also doing some running—with a 116-102 decision over the Milwaukee Bucks.

The Celtics' victory kept them in first place over the Knicks in the NBA's Atlantic Division, but not by much. The Celtics, with a 15-2 record, lead the division by percentage points over the Knicks, who are 17-3.

In the other NBA games Tuesday night, it was: Baltimore 124, Buffalo 88; Kansas City-Omaha 101, Phoenix 96; Cleveland 98, Seattle 88; Chicago 113, Houston 105 and Detroit 113, Atlanta 110.

DeBusschere scored 25 points and Bill Bradley netted 22 to pace New York's easy triumph. The Knicks had it sewn up by the second period, when they bolted into a 48-31 lead with the help of rookie center John Gianelli.

Gianelli scored a career-high 12 points and several key rebounds in the second period, when the Knicks broke it open.

A blistering fast break, led by John Havlicek's 27 points and 23 by Dave Cowens, powered Boston over Milwaukee. It was the fourth defeat in five games for the powerful Bucks, who fell out of first place in the Midwest Division.

Baltimore, 10 points behind Buffalo in the third period, rallied behind Phil Chenier to hand the Braves their eighth straight defeat.

Richard Wood picked Lineman of the Week

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

If statistics tell the story, Richard Wood, Southern California's super sophomore line-backer, hasn't improved much since the start of the football season.

After all, Wood began his college career by making 13 primary tackles and five assists and intercepting a pass as the Trojans upset favored Arkansas 31-10.

Last Saturday, in unbeaten and No. 1-rated Southern Cal's 10th game, Wood made 13 primary tackles and five assists and intercepted a pass in a 24-7 Pacific-8 Conference showdown against arch-rival UCLA.

For that performance against the 14th-ranked Bruins, the 6-foot-2, 218-pounder from Elizabeth, N.J., was named National Lineman of the Week by The Associated Press.

"Richard Wood will be our sophomore of the year," Coach John McKay predicted before the season. Now, McKay says the Trojan defense, which

Tyler named AP's Player of the Week

NEW YORK (AP) — "I've been trying to get two interceptions in one game all year," said rookie Buffalo safety Maurice Tyler, "and I finally did it."

He couldn't have done it at a more opportune time. He did it last Sunday against New England. The first one led to a touchdown and the second one, coming in the final seconds with the game tied, set up John Leybold's 45-yard field goal that carried the Bills past the Patriots 27-24. And in between, Tyler made nine unassisted tackles and assisted on a 10th.

For his outstanding performance, Tyler was named today as The Associated Press Defensive Player of the Week in the National Football League.

Matlack is NL's Rookie of the Year

By KEN RAPPOPORT

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Jon Matlack, who mastered a major league curve ball just last winter and used it to win 15 games for the New York Mets in the 1972 baseball season, today was named the National League's Rookie of the Year.

The 22-year-old southpaw was a runaway winner of the coveted award, receiving 19 out of a possible 24 votes from the Baseball Writers Association of America committee.

His landslide vote total was the most since Kenny Hubbs of the Chicago Cubs polled 19 after the 1962 season.

The writers distributed their remaining votes to catcher Dave Rader of the San Francisco Giants, who received four ballots, and New York Met outfielder John Milner, who got one.

Matlack was a pleasant surprise for the Mets, who needed a solid southpaw starter when Jerry Koosman came up with arm problems in spring training.

Matlack spent three seasons with the Mets' Triple-A farm team at Tidewater before coming up at the end of last season. He lost three games with the Mets in limited work, then pitched winter ball in Puerto Rico in an attempt to learn to control his curve.

opened the campaign with just four returning regulars, "deserves three-fourths of the credit for our No. 1 ranking." And Wood is the No. 1 man on the defensive unit. Not only does he call the signals, but he's made a team-leading 106 tackles, 31 more than the runner-up. Rev. Trussell is speaker at Kiwanis Club

In keeping with the season Rev. Gerald W. Trussell, Pastor of First Baptist Church, brought a Thanksgiving message as he appeared before the Kiwanis Club at their Tuesday meeting. He was introduced by Kiwanian Bill Butler who arranged the program.

The speaker used as the basis of his message Psalm 103, "Bless the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me, bless his holy name. Bless the Lord O my soul, and forget not all his benefits."

Most of us are prone to complain about our lot until we come to the realization that some others are far worse off than we are. Thanks to God is a natural thing or should be, yet many of us fail to give thanks for our daily blessings. The simple matter of giving thanks at the table at meal time is often neglected. Is it any wonder that our children take their blessings as a matter of course?

Every man's heart is filled with something. If it is filled with thanksgiving, there's no room for some of the things that seem to bother us. Every desire of David's heart was fulfilled by a proper and worshipful relationship with God. Our hearts, too, may have desires fulfilled when we are rightly related to God.

How can any one of us be ungrateful? How can we fail to give thanks when we are blessed as we are? Let us not take our blessings for granted.

The Pilgrims were a religious people, not rich except in their faith in God, but they had time to thank God for his blessings to them.

America appeals to other peoples as does no other nation. Her greatness is due in no small measure to the faith of her founders in the living God.

In the 116th Psalm David says, "What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? I will take the cup of salvation and call upon the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people". Should we do any less?

The Support of Churches Committee of the Kiwanis Club urged all Kiwanians and their friends to attend the Community Thanksgiving Service at First Baptist Church Wednesday evening at 7:00 p.m.

Jim Allen of El Dorado was the only guest at Tuesday's meeting.

Astronauts are rehearsing

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — With the last major preflight test completed, the Apollo 17 astronauts today rehearse blasting off from the moon and docking their two spaceships, America and Challenger.

Eugene A. Cernan and geologist Harrison H. Schmitt plan to spend much of the day in the lunar module simulator while Ronald E. Evans operates the command ship trainer, running through the complex lunar lift-off procedures they have practiced scores of times.

Involved is the precisely timed takeoff from the moon and two hours of maneuvers by Cernan and Schmitt to catch and link up with Evans in the command vehicle.

All three astronauts boarded the command ship America atop a Saturn 5 rocket Tuesday night for the final 2½ hours of a trial countdown which ended successfully with simulated launching of the rocket at 9:30 p.m. EST.

That's the same time scheduled for the liftoff of the big booster Dec. 6 on the final Apollo moon-landing journey. It will be the first after-dark launching of a U.S. manned space flight and is expected to attract nearly one million spectators to the area.

Launch Director Walter Kapryan termed Tuesday night's test "perfectly normal. We have no problems whatsoever to report."

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB

What good will lectithin do?

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb — After reading several articles and paperbacks on the subject of lecithin, I purchased a large bottle and after finishing it purchased another one. Later I read that gallstones are composed in part of lecithin. I looked the word up in the dictionary and found the description "the yolk of an egg, a nitrogenous fatty substance found in nerve tissue, blood, milk, egg yolk, and some vegetables."

My sister and I have been watching our cholesterol and avoiding foods that would raise the count. Ours are both high. I looked up the definition of the word cholesterol and it sounds much like lecithin. Our problem is whether we should continue taking these or not. We have a family history of hardening of the arteries and were under the impression after reading articles that lecithin was valuable for this condition as well as many heart problems. We are 58 and 60 years old.

Dear Reader — Unfortunately, the experiments done by reputable scientists trying to use lecithin to lower cholesterol or prevent atherosclerosis have proved that it has no value in this regard. At the same time in limited amounts it won't cause any harm. It is not the same thing as cholesterol. It combines some of the fatty particles in the blood to help form a related fat particle which some scientists thought would prevent the fatty particles from depositing in the arteries. Unfortunately, this hasn't proved to be the case. I don't believe it will contribute to gallstones either.

Dear Dr. Lamb — I have heard it mentioned that X ray treatments might be beneficial to prevent attacks or decreasing the severity of attacks of arthritis or osteoarthritis. Please give your valued opinion on this comment.

Dear Reader — There is no evidence whatever that X ray treatment will help arthritis or osteoarthritis. There is an inextinguishable list of things that have been recommended as cures for arthritis. It is safe to say that most of those that are recommended, particularly if they are advertised, are worthless, and in some instances downright frauds. The quick medicines foisted on the public for treatment of arthritis are astonishing. You will not find these kinds of recommendations being made by reputable physicians.

There are a number of medicines which are helpful in the treatment of arthritis but they don't offer cures. The rheumatoid or inflammatory type of arthritis sometimes subsides on its own and some medicines appear to help to control or slow the process.

Osteoarthritis is the result of wear and tear most often associated with increasing age and while pain relievers are useful for it, they won't cure the process. Everyone who has arthritis deserves a careful medical evaluation by his family doctor and should try to follow his advice. There is no sure cure for arthritis at this writing, and none seem likely in the near future.
